ADELAIDE CITY

Our guests this week are Adelaide City a team which took the PSL by storm last year both on the field with their style of football and off the field in the numbers of people attracted to their home matches.

Adelaide City started this season rather sluggishly but now that Dixie Deans is back in their fold their confidence, and old savoir faire has returned. Dixie has scored 3 goals in the past 2 matches for City helping them to earn 4 points and move the team into 7th position on the table.

Another reason for City's return to winning form could be that young Gary Marocchi is finally playing to his true potential. Last year he was tipped by many to be a future, regular Australian international and some experts even went as far as to say Gary could be possibly the next Socceroo Captain. Now he is playing at his best, working tirelessly in midfield as well as scoring some great goals. Other players who stand out for Adelaide are the Nyskohous Brothers, Johnny & Bugsy, both internationals and the only pair of brothers to have represented Australia since our readmittance to FIFA. Also it is hard to ignore the cultured pair of Frank Lister and Johnny Perin. Lister is often compared to the famous Franz Beckenbauer in style and position if not skill. Perin on the other hand has also received high praise being called the greatest misfield talent Australia has failed to recognise because of his loyalty to a life in Sth. Australia which caused him to miss greater recognition. Another name that is familiar to Sydney fans is Les Schenflug, now coach of Adelaide City & one of the friendliest men if most travelled in Australian soccer.

ST. GEORGE

SOCCER
TO ME TIME!

Rafael Tonanez

Today is the last day that

Sydney soccer fans will have to see England's goalkeeper, RAY CLEMENCE in action, as now that the World Cup is drawing to a close, Ray's commitments with the ABC will end, and he will return to England. On the brighter side Saint's Fans will see a glittering line-up of internationals headed by Ralph Coates of England, and Rafael Tonanez of Paraguay accompanying the five Australian internationals Utjesenovic, Harris, Grosse, O'Connor and O'Shea, along with of course, Ray Clemence.

Ralph Coates formerly of Burnley and Tottenham, and making his debut appearance at Barton Park, started his career with Saints in fine fashion last week scoring a brilliant opportunist goal to earn a 1-1 draw with Canberra City.

It is a shame that we won't be able to see these 2 great England stars in action together again for they could well have provided a great double drawcard for Sydney Soccer.

So as we say hello to Ralph Coates we must bid farewell to Ray Clemence who has been a true professional on and off the field with his coaching demonstrations and T.V. commentary.
